FOOD FOR THOUGHT

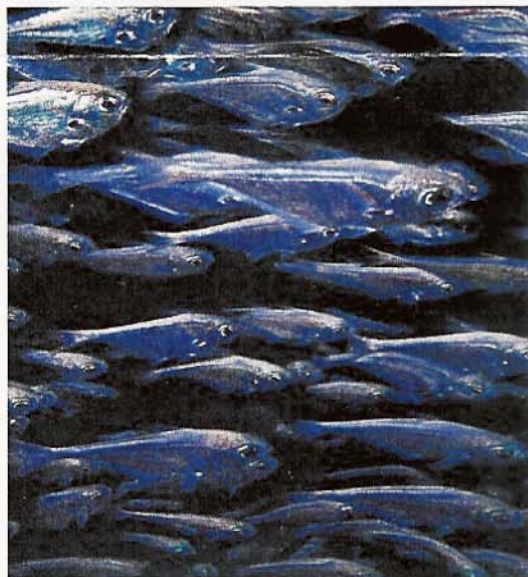

1ST ANNUAL COMMUNITY FISHING POOL A HUGE "HANDS-ON" SUCCESS

"Hands-on" was the theme of this year's Coconino County Fair and the Northern Arizona Food Bank had plenty to offer!

With 1,100 rainbow trout put in the pool by Arizona Game & Fish, a lot of kids had a chance to literally get their "hands on" a fish. Some of these children had never fished before and were fully fascinated just watching them swim around the pool.

In addition to Arizona Game & Fish, we wish to thank the folks at the Coconino County Fair for their donation of the water and ice, as well as the reduced rate on the space and the tent. Home Depot donated the labor and material for the decking and rails around the pool, as well as many volunteers to help work.

The event was financed, in part, by businesses that gave cash donations or bought banners. These included

Quality Inn-Mt. Ranch Resort,
 Mailbox Plus-University Plaza,
 New England Business Systems,
 Oak Tree Furniture and New Frontiers Travel.

and dinners at Black Bart's,
 Chili's, Garcia's, Little Caesar's-
 Cedar Ave., and Jackson's Grill
 at the springs.

Did you notice our attractive T-shirts made by Cheap Clothes?

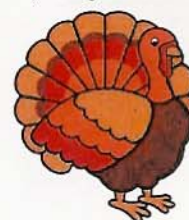

Through the generous gifts of these businesses, participants were entered into a drawing for a bicycle from Wal-Mart.

THANK YOU ALL for making this one of the most popular events at the Fair this year!

GEARING IT UP FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

FOOD DRIVES, VOLUNTEERS, MONETARY DONATIONS! As always, these are the greatest needs for November/December. We will be having the giant, walk-in turkey set up again, ready to take food donations, and we sure could use some volunteer help to cover time slots!

We expect the food need to be high again this year and would greatly appreciate any organizations willing to participate in a food drive. We'll do most of the work, we just need you to say, "sure, bring a collection bin to our location!"
